

It was a full house—327 guests—for the annual WHO Winds & Strings Celtic Bank Benefit Concert.

The music was inspiring. The public generosity amazing. Thank you to everyone who worked so hard and gave so willingly to help WHO thrive. Your total financial generosity came to $6600! That is a blessing beyond measure. We say it often, and mean it every time:

We Couldn't Do It Without You!

Spotlight on Volunteers!

These two generous people, Gail and Kevin, of New Heights Church, have come into the St. Andrew Lutheran WHO every Friday morning for the past two seasons, bringing with them a hot breakfast.

On January 25, it was scrambled eggs, sausages, biscuits and muffins. Guests were gobbling it down. Such a great change from cold cereal.

They also regularly bring needed items like plastic bags, ponchos, etc for the guests. Gail and Kevin—thank you from all of us at WHO!

A BIG 'Thank you' to Clark College students for volunteering their time at the St. Paul WHO in late January. They rolled up their sleeves, scrubbing and cleaning. The site is sparkling from their amazing work!
